PRESIDENT'S REPORT:

Slate of Officers

Take note of the proposed slate of officers on the agenda we will be voting at the May meeting. Please let Ashley know if you are interested in filling any of the open positions or feel that you would like to co-chair a committee with someone. We are looking for people to help with Monster Mash and Family Game Night to fun family events that we would love to see return to OSE next year.

- Note: Ben Opperman volunteered to fill Vice President role
- Note: Jessica Moore will be moving from Hospitality to Family Game night so we will have an opening for Hospitality

Be Well Event - April 30th

Dublin City Schools and Worthington City Schools are partnering to offer learning sessions for parents in our communities. The focus of the program is mental health and well being, topics that are certainly at the forefront of everyone's mind during these challenging times.

TREASURER'S REPORT:

We have had the following changes since the last meeting:

Deposits purchases for the school store

Flowers sales purchased prizes and a deposit of $15.00, we will receive the remainder from online sales at pickup.
